Punishment to Fit the Crime.

When Congressman Small was a young lawyer he was once arguing a case before a country magistrate. "Why," said Mr. Small, "the man at the bar, Jones, would just as soon kill me right here before your faces as not."

The old magistrate slowly took out his spectacles, put them on, and peered over to get a look at the desperate Jones. Then he pointed his fingers at him, and said, "You, Bill Jones, if you kill John H. Small here before me I'll fine you one dollar and fifty cents for contempt of court, darn my soul if I don't!"—R. J. H. in Woman's Home Companion for March.

Girlhood and Scott's Emulsion are linked together.

The girl who takes Scott's Emulsion has plenty of rich, red blood; she is plump, active and energetic.

The reason is that at a period when a girl's digestion is weak, Scott's Emulsion provides her with powerful nourishment in easily digested form.

It is a food that builds and keeps up a girl's strength.
